Following their signing with ITB, Bad Touch are thrilled to announce their rescheduled nationwide UK tour that will now take place in September and October 2020 UK. Tickets that were purchased from Bad Touch's April 2020 UK tour will still be valid for the rescheduled shows. Tickets are available from www.badtouchrocks.co.uk/gigs-tours.

The 13-date tour includes their hometown Norwich (Sep 18), Manchester (Sep 21), Glasgow (Sep 25), London (Sep 29) and Cardiff (Oct 1), and many more dates. Special guests will be Midlands rockers PISTON, who recently released their video for "Mama Weer All Crazee Now" featuring a cameo from Bad Touch.

"We're sorry to say that due to UK venues closing daily, and after much deliberation with promoters and booking agents we have concluded that the most responsible course of action is to postpone our upcoming UK tour with Piston. The good news is that our brilliant team has already managed to reschedule all our dates and we hope that you can make the shows once this bonkers time has passed. Please stay safe, look after each other and wash your hands." – Bad Touch

The Norwich five-piece are currently in the studio to record their fourth album. This will be the follow-up to "Shake A Leg". "Shake A Leg" was released in October 2018 via Marshall Records and received rave reviews and was followed by a UK Tour. The album, which featured the rock radio single "Lift Your Head Up", was recorded in their home county of Norfolk at Orange Tree Studios and followed their critically acclaimed 2016 album "Truth Be Told" which featured the rock radio hit "99%".

Known by fans and critics alike for having a reputation as a busy and hard-working band, Bad Touch continue to tour far and wide and are looking forward to touring the UK again in 2020.

BAD TOUCH – BIOGRAPHY

Bad Touch are a 5-piece classic rock band from Norfolk, UK. Most people see growing up in Norfolk as a disadvantage, but Bad Touch owe the core of their sound to their countryside surroundings. Those formative years of listening to the likes of Led Zeppelin, The Black Crowes, Free and Lynyrd Skynyrd whilst looking out on the rolling countryside and hard-working people gave them an escape to help create their infectious blend of rock, country and blues.

Having just completed their fourth album at the legendary Rockfield Studios with Nick Brine (The Darkness, Thunder, Ash), the New Wave of Classic Rock favourites will release 'Kiss The Sky' in June 2020 on Marshall Records, Bad Touch are gearing up for a busy year of touring, including a main stage appearance at Ramblin' Man Fair.

After signing to Marshall Records in 2018, Bad Touch released third album 'Shake A Leg' which featured Planet Rock Radio favourites 'Lift Your Head Up' and 'Too Many Times' and critical acclaim across the board and built upon the reputation the band had cemented with tracks like their duet with Mollie Marriott, a cover of Ike & Tina Turner's classic 'Baby Get It on' and crowd pleaser '99%' from 2016's 'Truth Be Told'.

Bad Touch have extensively toured the UK and Europe, being seen at festivals such as Download Festival, Ramblin' Man Fair and Planet Rockstock. They have toured with Skid Row, The Answer, Broken Witt Rebels, Those Damn Crows, The Quireboys, FM and more.

Bad Touch are Stevie Westwood (vocals), Daniel Seekings (guitar, vocals), Rob Glendinning (guitar), Michael Bailey (bass) and George Drewry (drums, vocals).

Early Years

After forming in a cabin in Dereham in 2010, Bad Touch immediately made an impact on the UK rock scene with their debut EP, playing Hard Rock Hell for the first time, winning an Exposure Music Award and winning the Marshall Amplification 'Ultimate Band Contest', which opened up their relationship with the legendary music brand. Debut album 'Half Way Home' was self-released in 2015 and opened up for the likes of The Answer and The Quireboys.
