With Robert Jon & The Wreck, the Southern rock resurgence is shining brighter than ever before. This blues and country-infused rock 'n' roll quintet have consistently delivered soaring solos, boogieing grooves, and arguably perfect tunes since debuting with 2011's Fire Started. RJTW's latest LP, Last Light on the Highway, provides yet another heaping helping of stellar Southern Blues Rock.

The band have received accolades and rave reviews for years from nominations of "Best Rock" and "Best Blues" and winning the title of "Best Live Band" at the Orange County Music Awards in 2013, to numerous top 10 chart positions. Being praised as "Classic and fresh at the same time," by Rock The Best Music, "Raising the bar for the Southern genre," by Blues Rock Review, and "keeping the history of classic 60's and 70's rock alive for newer generations," by Blues rock legend Joe Bonamassa.

Robert Jon & The Wreck have supported Joe Bonamassa, Buddy Guy, Eric Gales, Living Color, Chris Robinson Brotherhood, Walter Trout, Rival Sons, Robert Randolph, Lukas Nelson & Promise of the Real, The Cadillac Three, Black Stone Cherry, Devon Allman, Billy Sheehan, Sturgill Simpson, and many more.

"Robert Jon & The Wreck's new album is a real humdinger." – Planet Rock

"Robert Jon & The Wreck's most outstanding album release to date." – Blues Matters
